Notes from the January 2 Board of Directors Meeting:

OPTIMIST CREED

Promise Yourself...

- To be so strong that nothing can disturb your peace of mind.*
- To talk health, happiness and prosperity to every person you meet.*
- To make all your friends feel that there is something in them.*
- To look at the sunny side of everything and make your optimism come true.*
- To think only of the best, work only for the best, and expect only the best.*
- To be just as enthusiastic about the success of others as you are about your own.*
- To forget the mistakes of the past and press on to the greater achievements of the future.*
- To wear a cheerful countenance at all times and give every living creature you meet a smile.*
- To give so much time to the improvement of yourself that you have no time to criticize others.*
- To be too large for worry, too noble for anger, too strong for fear, and too happy to permit the presence of trouble.*

Optimist International adopted this creed in 1922. It was originally published in 1912 in a book titled: "Your Forces and How to Use Them." The author was Christian D. Larson
