

The Optimist Creed

Promise yourself

To be so strong that nothing can disturb your peace of mind.

To talk health, happiness and prosperity to every person you meet.

To make all your friends feel there is something in them.

To look at the sunny side of everything and make your optimism come true.

To think only of the best, work only for the best, and expect only the best.

To be just as enthusiastic about the success of others as you are about your own.

To forget the mistakes of the past and press on to the greater achievements of the future.

To wear a cheerful countenance at all times and give every living creature you meet a smile.

To give so much time to the improvement of yourself that you no time to criticize others.

To be too large for worry, too noble for anger, too strong for fear, and too happy to permit the presence of trouble.

I am sorry that I cannot attend Wednesday meetings for a few more weeks. I will try to continue to publish a Rich-O-Gram each week, but I need someone to care enough to provide me with some information about what took place at the meeting. Names of guests, what did the speaker talk about, any interesting thing from the members, etc.

It did not happen last week, which is why this issue is so thin on club news!
