Last Week's Speaker

Lt. Mark Shelley from the Richfield Police Department spoke to us about Police use of Force. Mark is a 30 year officer, the last 25 with Richfield. He is the SWAT team leader and the firearms instructor of the force.

He noted that less than 1% of all police contacts result in any use of force. He explained how the human body reacts visually & mentally when threatened.

The Richfield Police practice constantly to improve both mental & physical skills.

Pat Dale dined at Revival, a bistro noted for it's chicken & crowds in So. Mpls.

Dick Franzmeier dined at a Japanese eatery & was fascinated by the chefs table presentation

Don James told of his granddaughter's 4th of July revelation that she was free - No, she said, I am four!
