Last week our speaker was TOM HORNER. Tom has been a public relations leader and Political leader, serving for many years on the staff of Senator Dave Durenburger. Tom talked to us about the division in our Government, both federal and states.

He states that the Supreme Court is being very inconsistent and that Congress has abdicated its duty to make laws, instead allowing too many decisions to be made by Executive Branch decisions.

Instead of compromise, governing bodies need to collaborate.
